The History of the Tröma Nagmo cycle

According to the Terma teachings, Guru Rinpoche received the teaching of Tröma Nagmo and the Tantra of Vajravarahi from a large group of wisdom dakini's in the Spontaneous Cemetery of Uddiyana. Vajrayogini also appeared before him and gave him all these teachings as an oral transmission. Guru Rinpoche realized that of all practices, these were the most profound and secret, so he hid them in his own heart-mind. Later, when he came to Tibet, Yeshe Tsogyal had a dream in which the five wisdom dakini families advised her to request this teaching from Guru Rinpoche. After Guru Rinpoche gave these teachings to Yeshe Tsogyal and his closest disciples he hid it as terma in the heart of Drokben Kyeuchung Lotsawa, the previous incarnation of Dudjom Rinpoche. Following the prophecies of Guru Rinpoche and other tertön's, Dudjom Lingpa (1835-1904), the predecessor of Dudjom Rinpoche, Jigdröl Yeshe Dorje, revealed these teachings without obstacle as a space treasure from his wisdom mind. This is a direct, secret empowerment of the dakinis and by receiving it, you receive all the empowerments of the dakinis.
